

THE DAILY TOMBSTONE

The Pioneer Daily of the Camp.

JULY 2.....1885

PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING,
Sundays Excepted.

-37-

JAMES J. NASH.

Office on Allen Street, north side, between Third and Fourth.

Delivered by Carriers for 25 cents a Week

MR. BURCHARD, the Director of the United States mint has received an intimation that if he doesn't see fit to get out in that way he will be removed. There's nothing in a name, surely, or Burchard would not be in danger of dismissal at the hands of the present Administration.

SECRETARY LAMAR has refused to appoint a man to office on account of inability to write. This is the first instance we believe of a person being denied a place under the present Administration solely because his Democracy is of the ingrained and conclusive kind.

It is reported again that Secretary Bayard will soon retire from the Cabinet. If he could only make a mistake by doing so he would probably hasten to hand in his resignation; but he can not be dependent upon where there is a chance for him to perform a really correct and wholesome action.

In the decision refusing a new trial to James D. Fish of the late Marine Bank of New York the Court declares that "there is no distinction between a loan made in bad faith for a fraudulent purpose and an application of money with a like intent in a form other than that of a loan." It seems very strange that Mr. Fish didn't understand this; but he will not make again, should he conclude to resume the career of a barker after the completion of his ten-year term in the Penitentiary.

SENATOR SHERMAN hits the nail squarely on the head with the declaration that the Democratic victory of last fall is proved to have been won by false pretences entirely. The clamor that was raised about frauds in the Republican management of national affairs had no foundation; it is now well known the scrutiny of a Democratic Administration having failed to disclose a single thing which goes to justify any of the frantic charges in question. As a matter of simple fact, the Republican party has been vindicated by its enemies, and is more worthy to-day of public confidence than it ever was before.

GEN. GRANT'S conscientious effort to keep his word with the public and finish his memoirs before his life is finished, is characteristic of the perseverance and dogged resolution which have marked his career and made him a great man. For himself more than for his book, however, the desire that his life will be prolonged.

As a new extradition treaty has been drafted by Secretary Bayard and the Dominion Minister of justice is understood to approve its provisions Canada may not much longer remain a refuge for criminals but there are other countries open to receive them, and the Secretary of State may wisely consider what action can be taken to establish uniform extradition laws for all civilized nations.

TELEGRAPHIC

Drownings.
GLASGOW, Mo., July 2.

Word has just reached town that O. Alverson, aged about 17, a son of Mr. W. P. Alverson, living a few miles below here, on the river, was accidentally drowned to-day in the presence of companions who knew nothing of it till they happened to miss him. His body has not been found.

KENOSHA, July 2.

Three small boys were bathing in the Mississippi River at the lower part of the city to-day, and one of them, named Charles Rockwell, was drowned. The boy was only 11 years old and a cripple.

Appointments.

WASHINGTON, July 2.

The president made the following appointments to be receivers of public moneys: J. O'Keane, at Vancouver, Washington territory; M. J. Cady, at Bodie, California; J. D. Allison, at Humboldt, California.

A. N. Delany, United States attorney for the eastern district of Wisconsin, vice Hazlton, suspended. W. C. Perry, United States attorney for the district of Kansas, vice Hallowell, resigned.

A committee representing Tammany hall waited on the president today and urged that that organization be recognized in the appointment of either United States marshall or district attorney for New York city.

Bribery Whipped.
WATKINS, Ia., July 2.

Miss Shaffer, aged 17, a school teacher at Clarksville, recently incurred the enmity of a family named Forney. Tuesday evening, while returning from school, she was met by Mrs. Forney and her daughter. The mother caught Miss Shaffer, and held her while the daughter beat her over the back and shoulders with a rawhide. The assault continued beating until tired, and after resting, began it again. Finally Miss Shaffer escaped and made her way home with blood running over her clothes from the wounds made by the whip. Mrs. Forney and her daughter have been arrested. The physician who examined Miss Shaffer pronounced her breast and back in a fearful condition and says she is suffering from nervous prostration.

Hunting a Wife.
GAINESVILLE, TEX., July 2.

W. C. Latouche, of San Angelo, Tom Green County, was in the city to-day looking for his wife, who, he said, deserted him at Shreveport, La., on the 13th instant. He was accompanied by his 4-year-old daughter, who was sick at the time of the mother's desertion. They were without funds, the woman having taken all the child's clothes and leaving them helpless. He got information that she had come to this city, but so far has been unable to find any trace of her. Mr. Latouche is a prosperous business man of San Angelo, and is possessed of considerable means. He is unable to account for his wife's desertion, as their domestic relations have always been agreeable.

Water Made Him Shudder.

NEW YORK, July 2.

Herman Kipp, the 5-year-old son of James Kipp, who resides at No. 254 South Orange avenue, Newark, N. J., was playing on the sidewalk with several other children yesterday afternoon. He complained of feeling sick. He was carried into the house and as soon as he saw a glass of water he went into convulsions. A physician was summoned, and a momentary examination was sufficient to show that the child was suffering from hydrophobia. The little fellow lay on a lounge in the dining room suffering great agony. Every time water was brought near him or a draught was created by an open door or window he was seized with convulsions. The muscles of his throat and neck contracted, his eyes dilated and his features were distorted. At times he barked like a dog. His left cheek, which bore the scar of a dog's teeth, was much swollen. Three physicians were summoned and a consultation was held, but the unanimous opinion was that the child can not recover and his death is likely to occur in two or three days. On April 8 the boy was bitten in the cheek by a large Newfoundland dog. A physician was sent for, but he did not dare to touch the boy, as the boy had been bitten. The wound was cauterized and some poultice taken to prevent hydrophobia. The family physician, however, entertained fears of the malady, as the dog owned by the boy's master, W. C. Kipp, was known to have been bitten by a rabid dog.

Three small boys were bathing in the Mississippi River at the lower part of the city to-day, and one of them, named Charles Rockwell, was drowned. The boy was only 11 years old and a cripple.

Appointments.

WASHINGTON, July 2.

The president made the following appointments to be receivers of public moneys: J. O'Keane, at Vancouver, Washington territory; M. J. Cady, at Bodie, California; J. D. Allison, at Humboldt, California.

A. N. Delany, United States attorney for the eastern district of Wisconsin, vice Hazlton, suspended. W. C. Perry, United States attorney for the district of Kansas, vice Hallowell, resigned.

A committee representing Tammany hall waited on the president today and urged that that organization be recognized in the appointment of either United States marshall or district attorney for New York city.

Bribery Whipped.
WATKINS, Ia., July 2.

Miss Shaffer, aged 17, a school teacher at Clarksville, recently incurred the enmity of a family named Forney. Tuesday evening, while returning from school, she was met by Mrs. Forney and her daughter. The mother caught Miss Shaffer, and held her while the daughter beat her over the back and shoulders with a rawhide. The assault continued beating until tired, and after resting, began it again. Finally Miss Shaffer escaped and made her way home with blood running over her clothes from the wounds made by the whip. Mrs. Forney and her daughter have been arrested. The physician who examined Miss Shaffer pronounced her breast and back in a fearful condition and says she is suffering from nervous prostration.

Hunting a Wife.
GAINESVILLE, TEX., July 2.

W. C. Latouche, of San Angelo, Tom

Green County, was in the city to-day

looking for his wife, who, he said, deserted him at Shreveport, La., on the 13th instant. He was accompanied by his 4-year-old daughter, who was sick at the time of the mother's desertion. They were without funds,

the woman having taken all the children's clothes and leaving them helpless. He got information that she had come to this city, but so far has been unable to find any trace of her. Mr. Latouche is a prosperous business man of San Angelo, and is possessed of considerable means. He is unable to account for his wife's desertion, as their domestic relations have always been agreeable,

and he has no enemies.

A. N. Delany, United States attorney for the eastern district of Wisconsin, vice Hazlton, suspended. W. C. Perry, United States attorney for the district of Kansas, vice Hallowell, resigned.

A committee representing Tammany hall waited on the president today and urged that that organization be recognized in the appointment of either United States marshall or district attorney for New York city.

Bribery Whipped.
WATKINS, Ia., July 2.

Miss Shaffer, aged 17, a school teacher at Clarksville, recently incurred the enmity of a family named Forney. Tuesday evening, while returning from school, she was met by Mrs. Forney and her daughter. The mother caught Miss Shaffer, and held her while the daughter beat her over the back and shoulders with a rawhide. The assault continued beating until tired, and after resting, began it again. Finally Miss Shaffer escaped and made her way home with blood running over her clothes from the wounds made by the whip. Mrs. Forney and her daughter have been arrested. The physician who examined Miss Shaffer pronounced her breast and back in a fearful condition and says she is suffering from nervous prostration.

Hunting a Wife.
GAINESVILLE, TEX., July 2.

W. C. Latouche, of San Angelo, Tom

Green County, was in the city to-day

looking for his wife, who, he said, deserted him at Shreveport, La., on the 13th instant. He was accompanied by his 4-year-old daughter, who was

sick at the time of the mother's desertion. They were without funds,

the woman having taken all the children's clothes and leaving them helpless. He got information that she had come to this city, but so far has been unable to find any trace of her. Mr. Latouche is a prosperous business man of San Angelo, and is possessed of considerable means. He is unable to account for

his wife's desertion, as their domestic

relations have always been agreeable,

and he has no enemies.

A. N. Delany, United States attorney for the eastern district of Wisconsin, vice Hazlton, suspended. W. C. Perry, United States attorney for the district of Kansas, vice Hallowell, resigned.

A committee representing Tammany hall waited on the president today and urged that that organization be recognized in the appointment of either United States marshall or district attorney for New York city.

Bribery Whipped.
WATKINS, Ia., July 2.

Miss Shaffer, aged 17, a school teacher at Clarksville, recently incurred the enmity of a family named Forney. Tuesday evening, while returning from school, she was met by Mrs. Forney and her daughter. The mother caught Miss Shaffer, and held her while the daughter beat her over the back and shoulders with a rawhide. The assault continued beating until tired, and after resting, began it again. Finally Miss Shaffer escaped and made her way home with blood running over her clothes from the wounds made by the whip. Mrs. Forney and her daughter have been arrested. The physician who examined Miss Shaffer pronounced her breast and back in a fearful condition and says she is suffering from nervous prostration.

Hunting a Wife.
GAINESVILLE, TEX., July 2.

W. C. Latouche, of San Angelo, Tom

Green County, was in the city to-day

looking for his wife, who, he said, deserted him at Shreveport, La., on the 13th instant. He was accompanied by his 4-year-old daughter, who was

sick at the time of the mother's desertion. They were without funds,

the woman having taken all the children's clothes and leaving them helpless. He got information that she had come to this city, but so far has been unable to find any trace of her. Mr. Latouche is a prosperous business man of San Angelo, and is possessed of considerable means. He is unable to account for

his wife's desertion, as their domestic

relations have always been agreeable,

and he has no enemies.

A. N. Delany, United States attorney for the eastern district of Wisconsin, vice Hazlton, suspended. W. C. Perry, United States attorney for the district of Kansas, vice Hallowell, resigned.

A committee representing Tammany hall waited on the president today and urged that that organization be recognized in the appointment of either United States marshall or district attorney for New York city.

Bribery Whipped.
WATKINS, Ia., July 2.

Miss Shaffer, aged 17, a school teacher at Clarksville, recently incurred the enmity of a family named Forney. Tuesday evening, while returning from school, she was met by Mrs. Forney and her daughter. The mother caught Miss Shaffer, and held her while the daughter beat her over the back and shoulders with a rawhide. The assault continued beating until tired, and after resting, began it again. Finally Miss Shaffer escaped and made her way home with blood running over her clothes from the wounds made by the whip. Mrs. Forney and her daughter have been arrested. The physician who examined Miss Shaffer pronounced her breast and back in a fearful condition and says she is suffering from nervous prostration.

Hunting a Wife.
GAINESVILLE, TEX., July 2.

W. C. Latouche, of San Angelo, Tom

Green County, was in the city to-day

looking for his wife, who, he said, deserted him at Shreveport, La., on the 13th instant. He was accompanied by his 4-year-old daughter, who was

sick at the time of the mother's desertion. They were without funds,

the woman having taken all the children's clothes and leaving them helpless. He got information that she had come to this city, but so far has been unable to find any trace of her. Mr. Latouche is a prosperous business man of San Angelo, and is possessed of considerable means. He is unable to account for

his wife's desertion, as their domestic

relations have always been agreeable,

and he has no enemies.

A. N. Delany, United States attorney for the eastern district of Wisconsin, vice Hazlton, suspended. W. C. Perry, United States attorney for the district of Kansas, vice Hallowell, resigned.

A committee representing Tammany hall waited on the president today and urged that that organization be recognized in the appointment of either United States marshall or district attorney for New York city.

Bribery Whipped.
WATKINS, Ia., July 2.

Miss Shaffer, aged 17, a school teacher at Clarksville, recently incurred the enmity of a family named Forney. Tuesday evening, while returning from school, she was met by Mrs. Forney and her daughter. The mother caught Miss Shaffer, and held her while the daughter beat her over the back and shoulders with a rawhide. The assault continued beating until tired, and after resting, began it again. Finally Miss Shaffer escaped and made her way home with blood running over her clothes from the wounds made by the whip. Mrs. Forney and her daughter have been arrested. The physician who examined Miss Shaffer pronounced her breast and back in a fearful condition and says she is suffering from nervous prostration.